PARIS + BRUSSELS

Catherine François
Born in 1963 - Lives and works in Brussels

---

Born in Belgium in 1963, Catherine François studied law at university before turning to fine arts and sculpture – a discipline to which she has devoted her life for the past thirty years. Her works are regularly exhibited in Brussels, Knokke, Paris, and Geneva.

In 2007, the David and Alice van Buuren Museum in Brussels hosted the artist's first retrospective exhibition. The event was met with great success and led to a second invitation in 2012.

Inspired by nature, Catherine François's sculptures are at once powerful, organic, familiar, and sensual, while tending toward abstraction. Her work conveys the infinity of movement, beyond the balance of energies... a reflection of life itself.
